

I am outraged that the FCC has told Clear Channel that the Howard Stern show can no longer be broadcast on the radio. This should be left to the individual to decide. No other country in the world is like this. We just liberated Iraq so they could be free to say what they want, and yet we can't do this in our own homeland. You should be ashamed.